Subject: Kern River - Hotter than Normal Weather Forecasted

Notice Text:

The current weather forecast shows temperatures will continue to be hotter than normal in Kern River's market areas through Sunday, August 5, and much hotter than normal beginning Monday, August 6 through Thursday, August 9, in Southern California and through Saturday, August 11, in southern Nevada.

Kern River requires all shippers and delivery point operators procure adequate gas supply to meet demand, and align daily scheduled nominations with physical receipts and deliveries to ensure system conditions are maintained within normal operating levels. Shippers and delivery point operators that do not align scheduled nominations and physical deliveries are subject to corrective action by Kern River.

Customers should visit Kern River's Daily Operational Report (DOR) at <http://services.kernrivergas.com> to monitor system conditions and other important information.

Please contact your Marketing & Customer Services representative or the Customer Services hotline at (801) 937-6111 if you have any questions.

Thank you for your cooperation!
